

Market Heads Up - Feb 2008

Wednesday, 06 February 2008

In this weeks podcast, we take a look forward to the next 30 days by looking back at last months numbers. We will do a quick overview of Santa Clara County and then a closer look at the communities of Los Gatos and Morgan Hill.

We will then move on to try and get an idea of what buyers, sellers and investors should be thinking right now. Where should they be shopping? What should sellers be doing to have the best chance of getting their home sold this month? Listen in for all the info.
